

~~ENGINEERING RECORD~~
HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

HAER
ME
3-PORT,
27A-

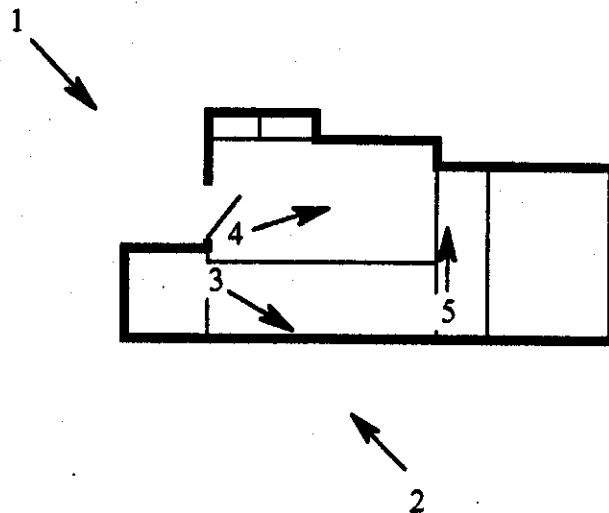

FORT MCKINLEY,
NORTH FORK MINING CASEMATE
West side of Seal Cove Lane, approximately 325 feet
north of Wood Side Drive, on Great Diamond Island
Portland
Cumberland County
Maine

HAER No. ME-59-A

Martin Stupich, Photographer, June, 1995

- ME-59-A-1 North Fork Mining Casemate showing standing structure and remnant walls; view to northeast.
- ME-59-A-2 North Fork Mining Casemate addition, view of roof from wall; to southwest.
- ME-59-A-3 North Fork Mining Casemate, interior southeast room with doorway leading to main masonry structure; view to northeast.
- ME-59-A-4 North Fork Mining Casemate, interior southwest room, showing hardwood floor, and doorway leading to main masonry structure; view to northwest.
- ME-59-A-5 North Fork Mining Casemate, interior ruins of connecting room between addition and main structure, showing collapsed skylight and typical fireproof shutter/door of main structure right; view to west.

KEY TO PHOTOGRAPHS
FORT MCKINLEY,
NORTH FORK MINING CASEMATE
HAER No. ME-59-A (Page 2)

Mining Casemate, North Fork
Floor Plan
[not to scale]

